

sermon outline

The Lord makes a covenant with Abram PROMISING him children and land. Abram remains childless and a sojourner asking honest questions of the Lord, yet responds in FAITH to what the Lord has said and shown to him.

How did Abram respond to the promises that had not yet been fulfilled? How are we to respond to the promises of God that are not yet fulfilled?

Background: The Lord blessed Abram and promised that he would become a great nation (many descendants) and would be given land. (Genesis 12:2, 7)

Dear Parents: We provide these Kids Bulletins to help our children engage and respond in the worship service. Please help your child follow along with the Order of Service. Use your finger to track the words of the readings. Encourage your child to participate in the songs. During the sermon, allow your child to use the space provided to draw pictures, to help him/her think about the Bible concepts. Use this bulletin in any way that helps both you and your child to worship God together!

Gathered by God

 Call to Worship: Psalm 18:1-3
I love you, O LORD, my strength. The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies.

Renewed by God through Grace

 Confession of Sin: Romans 3:21-25a
But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it—the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith.

 Declaration of Grace: Romans 5:1-2
Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
